

“I love to help businesses grow and be successful by focusing on people first!”

Suresh Narayanan, CEO,
MRO Jets

Tips from Suresh –

- The biggest thing is be honest with your actual experience. I find my team is always skeptical on resume statements of experience. Be prepared to answer questions on work history.
- Also, why aviation? If they could show that passion. It would be great.
- Be prepared to discuss aspects of training that were difficult. We want to make sure you are up to the daily challenges of the MRO environment.
- Culture fits are also one of our biggest focal points.
 - Team engagement experiences are important to communicate.
- We are looking for Candidates with clear goals that align with the business.
- Being open about what you don't know is a far better strategy than trying to prove what they do know.
